Säger en hel del om nivån på debatten i en av samtidens viktigaste frågor.

Translated from Swedish by Google

- Me in 2010: the migration policy pursued is a problem.
- The left: racist! Only SD thinks it is a problem.
- Me: no, I'm not SD but still think it's a problem, you have to be able to criticize politics from the right.
- The left: husblatte, only SD criticizes! - SD-Twitter: an immigrant who thinks migration policy is a problem, we like her even though she argues from other perspectives.
- Me in interviews and hundreds of texts over ten years: I am not SD. I criticize migrpol. from a right-wing perspective.
- SD-Twitter 2024: game changer! Hypocrite! You're not SD!
- The Left: Racist, Uncle Tom!
- Me: no, exactly, that's what I've been saying all along, I criticize politics from the right, which many other voters also do...

Ergo: I haven't changed my mind about anything. I have criticized the policy pursued and wanted to have a strict migration policy all along, but my reasons for this have been different than others', yet I have been lumped together with them in order to be silenced.

Says a lot about the level of the debate on one of the most important issues of our time.
