

Food security is not a luxury but a vital asset. Farmers must be able to produce affordable & safe food. In the first year of the war, food prices rose by 1/5. We counteracted this by reducing the burden on farmers. The next #CAP must place greater emphasis on its food security.

We were able to counteract this not with bureaucracy,

0:27